PRESENTATION REQUIREMENTS

To ensure your work is presented in a professional manner, please abide by the criteria below:

- D rings must be fitted to 2D works with either cord or wire for hanging. The D rings should be attached within the top ¼ (25%) of the frame to prevent the frame hanging at too large an angle from the wall. The cord or wire must be stretched taut between the D rings.
- Unframed stretched canvases are acceptable but must be clean on the edges if they are left unpainted.
- On delivery of works, artists must wait to sign their works in. Works not signed in will not be accepted.

SITTING THE EXHIBITION

Members are asked to help 'sit' the exhibition. Please enter your name on the roster which will be located on the white board at Culliford House. See reverse side for exhibition hours.

Selection & Judging

Selectors/judges for the exhibition will be practising artists/arts workers independent of TAS who will be looking for imaginative and original works demonstrating skilful use of mediums and techniques as well as adherence to the conditions of entry and presentation requirements. For "90 Years in Toowoomba" interpretation of the theme will also be important.

Prizes and certificates will be awarded at the official opening.

Fred Gardiner

In the early 1960s, Fred Gardiner and his wife Anne, both professional artists built and operated Toowoomba's first commercial art gallery, the Tia Gallery on Carrington Road. He was a fine sculptor, his best known works being the Bernborough equine bronze in Oakey and the Jimmy Crow memorial at Crows Nest.

Nancy Culliford

Nancy Culliford was the wife of TAS' benefactor, the late Wal Culliford.

Patron

Councillor Sue Englart has been a keen supporter and sponsor of the Arts in Toowoomba for many years, and in particular of the Junior Art Expo and TAS' Annual Members' Exhibition.

Harry Hart

Painter and ceramic sculptor, musician and actor, and major contributor to Toowoomba's cultural scene, English-born Harry taught art at TSHS Mt Lofty for many years before health problems led to his retirement and association with Toowoomba Art Society where he became a most popular teacher/mentor of the Wednesday Group, imparting a love of technical experimentation. He and his wife Gwen relocated to NZ where he died in March 2015.
